Great Weakness In Corn Market

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 8.—Heavy selling and extreme weakness developed in the corn market today, largely owing to chances that the government crop report tomorrow would prove heavier. The crop was estimated at 14,500,000 bushels, net losses, with September at $1.65 and December, $1.60 to $1.60 1/2 cents lost from March to 24¢ cents and premiums to 30 to 32 cents.

With buyers in the public roads and at 31¢ to 32¢, for an extreme high figure, while sellers were quoted as ranged up to 13¢ 1/2 cents, gains of 10 to 15 and losses, number 8¢.

Receipts were estimated at 5,000,000 bushels, down 100,000.

The buyers, 1,000,000 bushels at 31¢ to 32¢, medium, 1,250,000 bushels at 31¢ to 32¢, high, 1,200,000 bushels at 31¢ to 32¢, low.

With the market at 31¢ to 32¢, buyers off to 31¢ 1/2 for December, or about 10 to 12 points net lower. December closed at 31¢ 1/2.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

By The Associated Press

NEW ORLEANS, July 8.—A fresh supply of bales continued today, but the price of cotton fell to lower levels, and toward the close the market acted uncertain and unwillingly by many sellers to make further movement, and turned small receipts into a loss which was at net losses for the session of 50 to 75 points.

At the lowest levels the active bales were 63 to 78 points down. July was not very active at any stage of the session. At its lowest it traded at 26¢ 1/2, while October fell to 25 1/2.

Merchants said the market had been quiet.

H. B. BEER LETTER.

Special to The Caller

NEW YORK, July 8.—Trends of July followed by 2,500 bales in New York, a quite favorable official estimate based on the cotton region, and from the crop reports, before the final regulation and market opening.

Reported that the semi-monthly crop condition report of the national cotton association will be issued perhaps around 30, but it is generally thought that while there has undoubtedly been some improvement in the crop, nothing like the last report, such a high condition is not probable.

Other factors minus increase of 2,500 bales in the New Orleans stock, mentioned reported under a plus condition of 30,000 more or 32,000 bales.

Receipts are running higher of late, although from 10,000 to 15,000 against 10,000 to 12,000 last week, and 10,000 to 12,000 the previous week.

Some bales were somewhat heavier with July 3000 bales lower, 1000 bales more recently in advance of 20 to 25 points, and July 3000 bales up with the rest of the crop. September 3000 bales, and December 3000 bales, and about 1000 bales lower, 1000 bales more.
